GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Jesus often draws people towards Himself in strange, unpredictable ways. Like his dialogue with the Canaanite woman, Jesus sometimes seems to spar with us when we pray, when we beg him to heal someone we love and care for – or to heal us. It can seem that he's rebuffing us, as he seemed to rebuff her. Sometimes he is leading us on to persist until we do get what we want or to lead us to a greater faith in God's will for us. In all cases he recognizes our faith; always, he uses it to further the growth of his Kingdom. When we don't seem to get what we want, he's asking us to reflect on the clearest, the most eloquent, the most unfathomable thing he said, namely his act of Sacrifice. It's his great lesson to us. It won for him his Resurrection, and won for us our future share in his Resurrection when, at last, all prayers and longings will be answered. But always, Jesus wants us to know that he is with us; he journeys with us. Our way of the cross is his way of the cross.

Attention Parishioners: Do you have trouble understanding what is said in church? Because the sound echoes and reverberates in our church, people often have trouble understanding what is said even if they do not have any loss of hearing. If you have this difficulty please use a receiver with ear buds or headphones. You control the volume of your device. These receivers reduce background noise and amplify a speaker's voice for clearer communication. A transmitter connects to our sound system and delivers the sound directly to the individual receivers. You can pick up the receiver on your way into church and return them on your way out. They are found by the window in the alcove in the Gathering Area (Vestibule-Atrium). It is better if you use your own ear bugs or headphones, but a few are provided by the parish. You can also use a small FM radio tuned to 91.5.

Save the Date! St Paul the Apostle Parish Spaghetti Supper, Saturday, September 16 5-7 pm! This family-friendly event will be the perfect occasion to renew acquaintances and meet new parishioners. Enjoy all-beef spaghetti Bolognese, salad and dessert. Gluten-free pasta available on request. Eat in or take out.
