GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Jesus tells us that the kingdom of God is among us. Thus, God's kingdom is not an idea or ideal or something to be hoped for as a future gift. It is something to be worked for now by Christians in the present time. The full extent of the kingdom is indeed to be hoped for, but somehow it is also in our midst, in the process of becoming. Today's gospel shows how we are to promote the fuller coming of God's kingdom in our world. It comes whenever justice is done for the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, and the oppressed. A random act of kindness, a glass of water given out of goodness, seems like a very low threshold for a personal friendship with Christ. Christians have always had a strong trust in Christ's humanity; he was like us in every way except that he did not sin. Although this Sunday portrays him returning in regal splendor, the judgments of Jesus are not like ours. He seeks the good among the ordinary and the bad alike; too often we see the bad among the ordinary and the good alike. For Jesus, the sinner who does a single act in kindness can be saved.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated on Sunday, December 3 at 10:15 am (after the 9:00 am Mass). Those who wish to be anointed are asked to sit in the front seats of the Church. Those accompanying them should sit behind in the second seat, so as to support them by placing a hand on the shoulder of the one being anointed.

Who may be anointed? Any Catholic suffering from a serious illness, whether persisting, recurring, worsening, or newly developed may be anointed. How is the Anointing Done? After a reading and Litany of Intercession the priests lay hands on the head of the sick; then they anoint the person's forehead and palms of the hands.

Contrary to what some people believe, anointing is not a last rite. Anointing of the Sick is for the living who are seriously ill. You do not have to mention specifically why you wish to be anointed, if you do not wish.
