GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Jesus offers another parable about the Kingdom and the growing of seeds, which reminds us of the quiet and slow ways that God's Kingdom grows among us and within us. Central to the parable of the wheat and the weeds is the preciousness of the wheat. The landowner refuses to lose any of it, in order to get rid of the weeds. The weed resembles the wheat and, growing next to the wheat, may think it shares the same destiny with the wheat, but its end is destruction. The weed is harmful to the wheat, its roots will starve the wheat from the very source of its nourishment. The refusal of the householder to allow his slaves to separate the wheat from the weeds while they are still growing is a warning to the disciples not to attempt to anticipate the final judgment of God by a definitive exclusion of sinners from the Kingdom. The judgment of God alone will eliminate the sinful. Until then there must be patience and the preaching of repentance. We can learn much from God's patience as we see Him allow both the good and the evil to grow together. It is important to remember this point when we grow so impatient with God's role in human history.

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly - July 23

Pope Francis instituted this day to highlight the importance of providing adequate pastoral and spiritual attention to the elderly and to call upon communities to manifest the closeness of the Church to them.

Lord God almighty, bless our grandparents with long life, happiness, and health. May they remain constant in your love and be living signs of your presence to their children and grandchildren. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Why not send a loved one a Mass for a special intention. It's a Catholic tradition that is almost as old as the Church itself. Yet, it is one of the most commonly misunderstood practices in our faith. Though we often think of having a Mass said for those who have passed away or are ill, Masses can be offered for those who are still alive, "for the living and the dead, for sins, punishments, satisfactions, and other necessities." In other words, if you know someone who could benefit from the spiritual graces that come with having a Mass said on their behalf, there is no need to delay in doing so. Masses can be said for birthdays, anniversaries, in celebration of the reception of the sacraments, or for prayers that have been answered! Want a specific date, weekday or weekend? The usual stipend is $20.00 call the Parish Office to make arrangements, we can provide a card that you can send to your loved ones.
