REFLECTION

The Solemnity of All Saints proclaims a powerful truth: God created us for holiness, Christ redeemed us through his blood, and heaven is our promised home! We are not prisoners of sin, despair, or death. Through Jesus Christ, God opens the way to eternal life.

In the first reading, John sees "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue." They have endured suffering and remained faithful to God. Their robes are "made white in the blood of the Lamb." Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, cleanses us from sin and opens heaven to us. Our salvation rests not on our perfection, but on Jesus' saving grace.

St. John declares, "We are God's children now." This is a life-changing proclamation! Our failures, our wounded relationships, and our past mistakes do not define us. Through Christ, we are loved, forgiven, and called to holiness. No family is beyond God's healing, and no repentant sinner is beyond God's mercy.

Jesus reveals our path through the Beatitudes: "Blessed are the merciful" and "Blessed are the peacemakers." Holiness begins at home: forgiving instead of retaliating, loving instead of rejecting, and serving instead of seeking selfish advantage. Ordinary acts of love become extraordinary witnesses to God's kingdom.

In the Eucharist, we encounter Jesus, whose blood makes the saints holy. Receiving his Body and Blood, we are strengthened by grace to live as God's faithful disciples.

Dear friends, Christ has conquered sin and death! Heaven is open! Sainthood is our calling! Let us follow Jesus faithfully, until we join the saints in eternal glory. Amen.

You are asked to remember in prayer those recently deceased.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SOULS is a sacred occasion set aside to remember and pray for the faithful departed. This day calls us to reflect on the mystery of death and the hope of eternal life, reminding us that our loved ones continue to live in the embrace of God. It is a time to honor our relatives and all souls in purgatory, offering prayers, masses, and deeds of charity. There will be two Masses on All Souls Day.
