REFLECTION

The Solemnity of All Saints proclaims a powerful truth: God created us for holiness, Christ redeemed us through his blood, and heaven is our promised home! We are not prisoners of sin, despair, or death. Through Jesus Christ, God opens the way to eternal life.

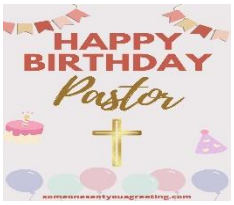

In the first reading, John sees "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue." They have endured suffering and remained faithful to God. Their robes are "made white in the blood of the Lamb." Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, cleanses us from sin and opens heaven to us. Our salvation rests not on our perfection, but on Jesus' saving grace.

St. John declares, "We are God's children now." This is a life-changing proclamation! Our failures, our wounded relationships, and our past mistakes do not define us. Through Christ, we are loved, forgiven, and called to holiness. No family is beyond God's healing, and no repentant sinner is beyond God's mercy.

Jesus reveals our path through the Beatitudes: "Blessed are the merciful" and "Blessed are the peacemakers." Holiness begins at home: forgiving instead of retaliating, loving instead of rejecting, and serving instead of seeking selfish advantage. Ordinary acts of love become extraordinary witnesses to God's kingdom.

In the Eucharist, we encounter Jesus, whose blood makes the saints holy. Receiving his Body and Blood, we are strengthened by grace to live as God's faithful disciples.

Dear friends, Christ has conquered sin and death! Heaven is open! Sainthood is our calling! Let us follow Jesus faithfully, until we join the saints in eternal glory. Amen.

May the Lord continue to light Fr. Charles' path, and we wish him many blessings and continued good health on his Birthday, November 8.

You are asked to remember in prayer those recently deceased.

HOLY LAND WOOD ART
For generations, Christian families in Bethlehem have supported themselves by making handmade religious artifacts for pilgrims visiting the Holy Land. While Christians once made up about 80% of the population, today they represent less than 1%. Since the war began, tourism has stopped, leaving these families without income. November,21/22, we are hosting a sale featuring beautiful artifacts. Your purchase will not only enrich your collection but also contribute to strengthening the Christian presence in The Holy Land. Catholic Guide to the Advent Wreath – Finding Purpose in the Waiting | Ep. 2

The Advent wreath is an invitation to enter into the waiting and preparation for the birth of our Savior! As we explore the meaning of the Advent wreath – its light, colors, and components – we can better grasp how we should be preparing our hearts. As the light from the candles grows brighter and brighter throughout the four weeks of Advent, so too grows our longing for the coming Light of Christ.
