REFLECTION
Let's Make Our Lives Count For God

God has blessed each of us with gifts, talents, opportunities, and time. The question is not how much we possess, but how faithfully we use what God has entrusted to us. As Scripture declares, "What do you possess that you have not received?" (1 Corinthians 4:7).

In the first reading, Proverbs praises the worthy woman who is hardworking, generous, wise, and compassionate. "She reaches out her hands to the poor and extends her arms to the needy." Her greatness is not in her possessions but in how she uses her gifts to bless others. Indeed, "Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised" (Proverbs 31:30).

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the talents. The master entrusts his servants with different amounts, expecting them to make good use of what they receive. The faithful servants hear the beautiful words: "Well done, my good and faithful servant." But the servant who buries his talent loses even what he has.

What talents are we burying? Perhaps the gift of prayer, forgiveness, kindness, parenting, teaching, leadership, or service. In our families and communities, God calls us not to live selfishly or fearfully, but to make a difference through love. Remember Jesus' words: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much" (Luke 12:48). St. Paul reminds us: "Let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober." We must live each day prepared to meet the Lord.

At every Eucharist, Christ gives us the greatest gift of all: himself. Nourished by his Body and Blood, we are sent forth to become gifts to others. May we never appear before God empty-handed, but with lives enriched by faith, love, generosity, and service, worthy to hear: "Come, share your master's joy!"

OCIA— the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which adults enter the Catholic Church. It is not a class or a test. It is a journey of faith, accompanied by the community of the Church, that leads to the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. If you are interested in exploring the Catholic faith, please call the office at: 613-389-8222

RECONCILIATION SESSIONS (candidates and parents attend)
Session 1 November 15 or November 19
Session 2 November 22 or November 26
Session 3 November 29 or December 3
All Sunday Sessions begin at 12:20 pm and Thursday Sessions begin at 6:30 pm

HOLY LAND WOOD ART
For generations, Christian families in Bethlehem have supported themselves by making handmade religious artifacts for pilgrims visiting the Holy Land. While Christians once made up about 80% of the population, today they represent less than 1%. Since the war began, tourism has stopped, leaving these families without income. November,21/22, we are hosting a sale featuring beautiful artifacts. Your purchase will not only enrich your collection but also contribute to strengthening the Christian presence in The Holy Land. Contact: 647-292-4462 or jihanwoodart@hotmail.com
